

Timeline Summary

December 29, 2020 – E-Dear Colleague sent re: Capitol and House Office Building Access

January 5, 2021 – Visitors meet with Congressman Loudermilk in the House Office Buildings

January 12, 2021 – Initial “reconnaissance tour” accusation made by Rep. Mikie Sherrill (D-NJ) via Facebook live.

January 13, 2021 – Rep. Sherrill sends a letter to U.S. Capitol Police Board accusing members of Congress giving “reconnaissance tours” of the Capitol Complex on Jan 5, 2021.

June 29, 2021- Federal agents visit Visitors 1* and 2*.

February 12, 2022- Ranking Member Davis sends letter to Speaker Pelosi stating no reconnaissance tours occurred.

March 15, 2022 – Visitor 1* Subpoenaed

March 15, 2022 – Visitor 2* Subpoenaed

March 29, 2022 – Visitors 1* & 2* produce requested documents

April 7, 2022 – Visitor 1* Deposition

May 10, 2022 – Visitor 2* Deposition

May 19, 2022 – January 6 Committee “Sends” First Letter to Rep. Loudermilk after (gives to press)

June 13, 2022 – USCP releases letter stating they reviewed Jan. 5 footage and find no evidence Rep. Loudermilk entered the US Capitol with his group, and that they do not consider any of the activities to be suspicious.

June 15, 2022 – January 6th Committee “sends” second letter to Rep. Loudermilk contradicting USCP, publicly releasing selectively edited “evidence.”

December 22, 2022 -- January 6 Committee issues Final Report repeating false claim of Loudermilk giving “a tour of the Capitol.”